

Bruce Gale has been Director of Music at St. Andrew By-The-Sea since June 2022. He has been a church musician for over 30 years, both as an organist and music director. Prior to coming to St. Andrew he served as the Minister of Music at the Gilead Congregational Church in Hebron, CT.

Bruce was a hospice volunteer for 12 years. He would take a keyboard and play music for hospice patients and their families. He also volunteered at the Harry and Helen Gray Cancer Center at Hartford Hospital where he would play piano while patients received chemo and radiation.

Bruce graduated from Eastern Connecticut State University with a Bachelor and Masters +30 degree in Education with minor degrees in music and reading. He taught first grade for 24 years. Bruce is a member of American Guild of Organists (AGO), the Connecticut Education Association (CEA) and the National Education Association (NEA).

Bruce lives in Sun City and enjoys music, gardening, travel, and volunteering in his spare time