We confess, O Lord, our hypocritical ways. Even as we ask for our daily bread, we have more than we need. We would rather give a handout to those who need bread, than to work for a change in the systems that keep them impoverished. Forgive us when we pray your prayer and think only of ourselves.

Give us the bread we need, not of milk and flour, but of sincere faith, unfailing hope, and merciful love, we pray. Amen

Third Sunday of Lent

Pray This Way: Learning and Living the Lord's Prayer

'Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread'

Scripture: Matthew 14:15-21 (Common English)

<sup>15</sup>That evening his disciples came and said to him, "This is an isolated place and it's getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves." <sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to them, "There's no need to send them away. You give them something to eat." <sup>17</sup>They replied, "We have nothing here except five loaves of bread and two fish." <sup>18</sup>He said, "Bring them here to me." <sup>19</sup>He ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves of bread and the two fish, looked up to heaven, blessed them and broke the loaves apart and gave them to his disciples. Then the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>20</sup>Everyone ate until they were full, and they filled twelve baskets with the leftovers. <sup>21</sup>About five thousand men plus women and children had eaten.

*In the Word was life,
and the life was the light for all people. Amen.*

Depth Finder (questions to go deeper)

Bending our lives toward God this week:

What does praying for daily bread mean for you? How do you give thanks for what God provides daily?

What excuses have you made when Jesus has called on you to 'feed them'? How have you seen Jesus take what you've got and multiply it?

Who might Jesus be calling you, as a disciple, and calling us, as the church, to feed?

Prayer as We Put Out to Sea

You may wish to use this as a table blessing this week: Dear God, bless this food, the hands that prepared it, the ground that yielded it, and those that worked the ground. Help us to be mindful and grateful for all of your gifts each and every day.
